[redacted] Halsted Foods, 3418 South Halsted, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed at Canaryville Foods, 710 West 43rd, Chicago, Illinois, telephone number 254-3026.

[redacted] advised that on January 19/20, 1978, he was present at the Halsted Food store just subsequent to a robbery which had occurred on the premises by unknown subjects.

[redacted] said the robbery was discovered on a Friday morning and further that Thursday night to Friday morning was the one night all week that anyone would be present in the store. [redacted] said that the only person in the store was a janitor employed by UBM Industries, Chicago, and that he was drugged and/or roughed up during the robbery. [redacted] further advised that the theft comprised the loss of approximately $12,000 which was taken from a Brink's safe that had been burned, enabling the door to be opened. [redacted] said directly above or on top of the Brink's safe was another safe which had also been burned, but that the thieves had been unable to get that door open.

[redacted] further advised that the unknown subjects had placed liquor bottles into empty cardboard boxes near the liquor section, as if they had also planned to steal liquor, but apparently changed their minds.

[redacted] also said that the thieves left tanks behind which were apparently used to burn into the safes. [redacted] said he believed the police took these tanks.

Upon viewing two photographs given to SAs [redacted] and [redacted] by [redacted] at Halsted Foods, [redacted] identified the photographs as pictures taken at Halsted Foods after the robbery in question.

Hood claims gun charge is harassment

A federal prosecutor denied under oath Tuesday that a gun charge was being pressed against a small time hoodlum to force his co-operation in a grand jury probe of reputed mob leader Anthony (Big Tuna) Accardo.

S. Gay Hugo, a lawyer with the Justice Department's Organized Crime Strike Force, also denied in U. S. District Court here that there had been any discussion among government investigators of dropping the gun charge against Ronald Jarrett if he would testify before the grand jury.

Jarrett, 35, of 3004 S. Lowe, is a convicted felon with a lengthy arrest record who is suspected of being in the loan shark business. Because of his conviction, the law forbids his possessing firearms. The indictment charges he was carrying a revolver on Oct. 6, 1975.

His defense lawyer, William J. Martin, noted before Judge Stanley J. Roszkowski that the indictment was returned last April 19, more than three years after the alleged offense and only 8 days after Jarrett cited his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination and refused to testify before the Accardo grand jury.

The panel has been investigating the gangland-style murders of at least five career burglars in an effort to link the slayings to crime syndicate leaders.

Judge Roszkowski continued the pre-trial hearing until Friday.

[redacted] Alfred's Orange Blossom Jewelers, 9530 South Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, Illinois, was interviewed at his place of business. [redacted] was requested to furnish his recollections regarding an armed robbery which took place at his business on or about December 15, 1977.

[redacted] stated that at approximately 4:00-4:15 p.m. after two female customers departed his store, he heard his employee, [redacted] wait on a male customer (Robber #1).

[redacted] Shortly thereafter, while in the inner office, [redacted] noticed an individual (Robber #2) wearing a dark colored ski mask walk into his store. [redacted] added then when Robber #2 began speaking in muffled tones, he pressed the silent alarm button located near the telephone in the inner office.

[redacted] then recalled shouting "What's going on here." He advised that Robber #2, brandishing a big hand-gun, cautioned him and threatened to "blow his brains out" if he did not comply with his (robber's) instructions.

[redacted] further advised that Robber #1, also holding a hand-gun, entered the inner office with [redacted] Also present in the inner office was [redacted]

Moments later, [redacted] stated that Robbers #1 and #2 ushered them all into the back storage room where they were forced to lie face down in a "spread eagle" fashion.

[redacted] advised that Robber #2 then left the area and walked toward the main showroom while Robber #1 maintained guard over them.

A few minutes later, [redacted] heard a voice coming from a walki talki carried either by Robber #1 or #2 which stated "both drives are covered...go out the back."

Shortly thereafter, Robber #2 entered the back storage room. [] recalled telling the robbers that "you can't go out there because the cops will be there." [] added that Robber #2 shouted "let's go," whereupon the robbers unlocked the back door and fled on foot from the premises.

Moments later, [] advised that he then ran to the back door and peeked down the alley but did not see the robbers. After listening to the pleas of [] to close the door, [] retreated back into the storage room.

Shortly thereafter, [] stated that they all then went into the showroom where two Oak Lawn squad cars were positioned outside his store.

When asked if he could recall any unusual events during this robbery, [] recalled that Robber #2 left his hand gun behind upon fleeing the store. He added that Robber #2 also walked with a limp. [] also recalls that a muddy footprint impression was also noticed on the slate portion of the showroom floor by both him and Oak Lawn Police officers. According to [] this is the area where Robber #2 stood after entering the store.

[] was also asked to provide an inventory of his loss. He stated that the display cabinets on the north wall and center floor were ransacked as well as a safe located in the side office adjacent to the rear north wall. [] added that the safe contained cash customer jewelry and "yags" (i.e., counterfeit diamonds).

[] then stated that the robbers neglected to search his cash register which contained approximately $1,500 in cash.

[] further added that his safe was locked, but unfortunately, the combination lock tumblers were pre-set to the "open" position.

[] also remarked that during the robbery, Robber #2 was clearly in charge of the robbery and that Robber #1 appeared to be quite unsure of himself.

[] then furnished a photocopy of a memorandum he provided his insurance carrier, Loyds of London; Eli, Loeb, Reed, Shaw and Stenhouse - General Agents, 230 West Monroe, Chicago, Illinois, concerning an inventory of his loss from this robbery. [] also provided factory sales sketches of some of the jewelry taken during the robbery. Those articles taken in the robbery were marked with an "X." [] stated that he claimed a loss of approximately $39,000.00 for this robbery.

[redacted] was interviewed at the place of her employment, Alfred's Orange Blossom Jewelers, 9530 South Cicero Avenue, Oak Lawn, Illinois. Upon being advised of the official identities of interviewing Agents, [redacted] was requested to furnish her recollections regarding an armed robbery, which took place at her place of employment on/about December 15, 1977.

[redacted] stated that she was inside the inner office of the Orange Blossom Jewelry Store conversing with fellow employee, [redacted], when a white male (white male #1) entered the store at approximately 4:15 P.M. She added that [redacted] approached white male #1, who asked to look at watches. [redacted] then recalled that [redacted] guided white male #1 to the floor display adjacent to the north wall which contained watches.

Shortly thereafter, [redacted] stated that she saw white male #1 holding a small silver plated gun on [redacted]. She further advised that white male #1 then ushered [redacted] into the inner office.

SA [redacted] displayed his Smith and Wesson Model 36, .38 caliber Special to [redacted] who stated that it was similar to the silver plated gun carried by white male #1 in respect to type and size.

At this point, [redacted] then advised that another white male, holding a big gun and wearing a black ski mask, entered the store. She stated that white male #2 was very gruff and continually shouted obscenities at [redacted] who was also in the store.

Thereafter, [redacted] recalls that white male #2 took charge and that she, [redacted] and [redacted] were commandeered into the back storage room by white males #1 and #2, where they were told to lie on the floor face down.

While white male #2 was in the show room area, [] remarked that white male #1 kept reassuring them to "shut up and nobody will get hurt". Being angered over the situation, [] stated that she impulsively began to argue with white male #1. She recalls saying "why are you picking on us. [] works so hard... this [] business..."

Shortly thereafter, [] advised that she heard a voice over a walki-talki carried by white male #1 stating "the cops are here...let's go".

[] recalled that white male #2 then re-entered the back storage room whereupon white males #1 and #2 unlocked the back door and made their exit through the rear entrance.

After waiting a few minutes, [] stated that [] ran to look out the back door, but retreated after she pled with him to back-off. [] then recalled that they went into the show room area where they observed Oak Lawn policemen outside the store.

[] surmised that the robbery took approximately five to ten minutes.

When asked if she could recall any unusual aspects of the robbery, [] stated that white male #2 left his gun behind and that white male #1 evidently pocketed the ladie's Longine wrist watch which was shown to him by []

She stated that the victim, [REDACTED] has been working for the company since he came to the United States a few years ago. The R/O reinterviewed [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] as an interpreter. The victim told the story much the same as on the morning of the offense when he was interviewed. He could add nothing additional to the investigation. b6 b7C

The bottle that was handled by the offenders was sent to the crime lab (E.I.#801193) and no prints were taken from the bottle.

In view of the above facts, it is requested that this case be ~~SUSPENDED~~ until a time when any new information pertinent to this case may be uncovered.

Police quiz 5 suspects in 12 store burglaries

FIVE MEN SEIZED by Chicago police, who had watched them chop a hole in the roof of a Homewood Jewel-Osco Store, were questioned Tuesday about a dozen supermarket burglaries in the last several months in the city and suburbs.

The men were arrested Monday night in two cars and a truck a short distance from the Jewel-Osco store at 3153 W. 183d St., Homewood, by investigators of the Chicago police Central Investigation Unit, commanded by John Auriemma.

Auriemma said information that the five may have been involved in the recent series of burglaries led police to begin a surveillance of the suspects. All five men were charged with burglary and possession of burglary tools.

THEY ARE THOMAS Beebe, 44, of 4600 S. Halsted St.; Joseph Vitale, 44, of 2631 S. Lowe Av.; Philip Lazzaro, 41, of 247 W. 21st St.; Sam Ciancio, 52, of 3327

S. Lituania Av.; and Ronald Brown, 32, of 2817 S. 58th Ct., Cicero.

Found in the truck and two cars used by the men were an assortment of burglary tools, police scanner radios, walkie-talkies, sledge hammers, roofer's hatchets, and electronic equipment to circumvent burglar alarm systems, Auriemma said.

Auriemma said two of the men had chopped a hole in the roof of the closed Jewel-Osco store, but all five men fled in the three vehicles when an employee showed up at 11 p.m. to begin night work.

POLICE FOLLOWED and arrested them a short distance away.

In all of the other burglaries, Auriemma said, the burglars had circumvented the alarm system, chopped a hole in the roof, then used a lift truck to carry the safe through a rear entrance to the gang's truck.

Attached is a copy of a communication which furnishes information concerning a current investigation. Exigent circumstances precluded a request for authorization in advance to utilize an electronic device to monitor and/or record private conversations with the consent of a party.

Under the provisions of Part II(a) of the Attorney General's Memorandum of October 16, 1972, to the Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies entitled, "Monitoring Private Conversations with the Consent of a Party," emergency monitoring was instituted under the authorization of an appropriate official of the FBI.

Monitoring of this conversation was authorized in the best interest of law enforcement in that it was expected to provide corroborative evidence and to protect the individual utilizing the equipment.

Further monitoring is expected in this matter and it is requested that your office approve the use of this equipment for a period of 30 days beginning the date on which you grant approval.

CHICAGO BURGLARS WHO WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE $1 MILLION JEWELRY HEIST OF LEVINSON'S JEWELRY STORE IN DECEMBER, 1977, AND THE BURGLARY OF CHICAGO LCN BOSS ANTHONY ACCARDO'S RESIDENCE IN JANUARY, 1978. THIS INVESTIGATION IS CARRIED UNDER CAPTION "BURGMURS", BUFILE 183-2136, CG FILE 183-394.

BACKGROUND RE "BURGMURS":

SHORTLY AFTER THE LEVINSON JEWELRY HEIST, THE CHICAGO LCN DEMANDED THE RETURN OF THE LEVINSON LOOT. FOLLOWING THE ACCARDO BURGLARY, MENDELL AND FOUR (4) OTHER BURGLARS WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE LEVINSON'S HEIST WERE BRUTALLY MURDERED.

JARRETT IS CONSIDERED TO BE THE PRIME SUSPECT IN THE MENDELL MURDER. HE WAS A CLOSE CRIMINAL ASSOCIATE OF MENDELL AND IS STRONGLY SUSPECTED OF BEING EITHER A LEVINSON'S BURGLARY PARTICIPANT OR HAD A SIGNIFICANT ROLE IN RECOVERING THE LEVINSON'S LOOT FOR THE LCN. IN APRIL, 1978 ~~(X) JOSEPH RODRIGUEZ (X)~~ ALSO A KNOWN CHICAGO BURGLAR, WAS FOUND MURDERED IN A CHICAGO ALLEY. RODRIGUEZ WAS A CRIMINAL ASSOCIATE OF AT LEAST TWO OF THE SLAIN LEVINSON'S BURGLARS. INVESTIGATION INTO HIS MURDER REVEALS THAT RODRIGUEZ WAS A PROBABLE PARTICIPANT IN THE LEVINSON'S HEIST. HE WAS ALSO VERY CLOSE TO JOHN MENDELL.

INVESTIGATION ALSO DISCLOSED THAT IN MARCH, 1978, RODRIGUEZ SHOT AND WOUNDED AN ASSOCIATE OF ~~(X) JOSEPH "SHORTY" LA MANTIA (X)~~ IN A CHICAGO BAR FREQUENTED BY CHICAGO HOODLUMS. LA MANTIA IS CONSIDERED TO BE A TRUSTED LIEUTENANT FOR ANGELO LA PIETRA, AND IS A CRIMINAL ASSOCIATE OF JARRETT. THE ~~(X)~~ CHIEF SUSPECTS IN THE RODRIGUEZ MURDER ARE LA MANTIA AND JARRETT. LA MANTIA WAS IDENTIFIED BY CHICAGO WITNESSES AS GUNNING FOR RODRIGUEZ FOLLOWING THE SHOOTING INCIDENT, AND RODRIGUEZ WAS LAST KNOWN TO MEET WITH JARRETT JUST BEFORE HE (RODRIGUEZ) WAS SHOT DOWN.

DURING THE COURSE OF THE "BURGMURS" INVESTIGATION, RELIABLE SOURCE INFORMATION DISCLOSED THAT ~~(X) GERALD J. CARUSIELLO (X)~~ AN ARMED ROBBER/BURGLAR AND MEMBER OF THE JOEY

AT THE TIME, AIUPPA RAN THE DAY-TO-DAY OPERATIONS OF THE CHICAGO "OUTFIT", AND ANGELO LA PIETRA WAS AND CONTINUES TO BE THE OUTFIT'S CHIEF ENFORCER. CARUSIELLO WAS A CRIMINAL ASSOCIATE OF AT LEAST ONE OF THE LEVINSON'S BURGLARS.

ON SEPTEMBER 18, 1979, CARUSIELLO WAS GUNNED DOWN GANGLAND STYLE IN A CONSTRUCTION SITE IN ADDISON, ILLINOIS. After parking the van inside the garage, [redacted] stated he saw the heads of two individuals walk past his garage window. He further advised that one of these individuals was holding a small object.

Being suspicious of the individuals outside his garage at that late hour [redacted] decided to exit his garage with his semi-automatic handgun drawn. He added that he was carrying his handgun because he was visiting his girlfriend who resided in a high crime area and felt that he needed a handgun for protection.

Upon exiting the garage, [redacted] stated that he was confronted by a masked male (Subject number 1) holding a handgun. Although he cannot recall the exchange of conversation with Subject number 1, [redacted] advised that he and Subject number 1 were at a standoff until he almost instantaneously noticed he was flanked by another masked male (Subject number 2) who was also holding a handgun.

At that point, [] stated that he automatically acquiesced to the demands of the gunmen. He recalls Subject number 1, the calmer of the two, telling him that they were not going to harm him [] and that they wanted to only take the safe from the Jewel.

[] further advised that Subject number 2 was very hostile and belligerent toward him and that Subject number 1 was continually telling Subject number 2 to calm down. [] also recalls overhearing brief conversations over walkie-talkie carried by both Subjects 1 and 2. At one point during his abduction, [] recalled overhearing one of the subjects (perhaps Subject number 2) having a conversation with a male voice who was referred to as "Number 3." [] added that "Number 3" was told that everything in the garage was okay.

Shortly thereafter, as Subject number 2 was about to depart the garage, [] advised that Subject number 1 and Subject number 2 began to argue over whether or not his [] handgun should be returned. [] added that Subject number 2 wanted to keep the gun while Subject number 1 balked at his idea. [] then recalled Subject number 1 telling Subject number 2 that "from the money you'll get...you'll be able to buy twenty guns."

[] then advised that Subject number 1 persuaded Subject number 2 to return the handgun wherein Subject number 1 emptied the bullets from the clip onto the floor and kicked them away. He added that as Subject number 2 was leaving the garage, Subject number 1 returned his emptied handgun.

Within a half hour, [] stated that another vehicle approached his garage. Moments later, the garage door opened whereupon he observed [] drive in with his car, a 1972 silver colored Pontiac Catalina.

b7C

Upon exiting his car, [] stated that [] was abducted at gunpoint by Subject number 1. [] recalled Subject number 1 stated that "there is $98,000 in that safe we're going to get." [] then advised that Subject number 1 began to reassure his dad that nothing would happen to them and that they only wanted the safe.

[] further advised that Subject number 1 even allowed [] to sit in the Pontiac with its engine running in an effort to keep warm.

Upon departing the garage, [] recalled Subject number 1 instructing them to remain in the garage. [] added that his dad then asked Subject number 1 how long they should stay in the garage. [] stated that Subject number 1 told them to remain for about a half hour and cautioned them "We know who you are but you don't know who we are."

Shortly thereafter, [] recalls the sound of a truck exiting the area from his garage accompanied by a loud "thump" noise. Surmising that the thieves had left the area, [] advised that he and his dad decided to remain in the garage for a few more minutes whereupon they exited the garage and entered their home.

[] stated that this incident was not reported to the police because [] feared retaliation from their abductors. [] further advised that he was never interviewed by the police during their investigation concerning the Jewel Food Store theft.

[] then provided the following descriptions of his abductors:

Subject number 1:

Sex	Male
Race	Caucasian

This is to confirm the results of an October 25, 1979, conference regarding captioned investigation in which you, Strike Force Attorney [REDACTED] Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Special Agents (SAs) [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were in attendance.

As you and SFA [REDACTED] will recall, the following points of discussion were covered during the course of the conference:

[REDACTED] cooperating subjects/witnesses, have furnished information to FBI SAs which implicate Ronald W. Jarrett, [REDACTED] and several others in a series of armed robberies and burglaries.

Based upon information furnished by [REDACTED] and preliminary cooperative investigation by the FBI, both you and SFA [REDACTED] were of the opinion that Ronald Jarrett can be successfully prosecuted under the Hobbs Act - Armed Robbery statute for his participation in the Orange Blossom Jewelry Store armed robbery at Oaklawn, Illinois, in December, 1977.

b7D

Both you and SFA [REDACTED] further advised that the information furnished by the above cooperating witnesses also presents a very good possibility for prosecuting Jarrett, [REDACTED] and others under the Racketeer Influence and ~~Corrupt~~ Organizations (RICO) statute.

To construct the best possible case against Jarrett et al, both you and SFA [REDACTED] stated that the FBI SAs should continue their investigative efforts toward developing a prosecutable case on the above named subjects under RICO.

Also discussed in this conference was the status of cooperating witness. [REDACTED]

[redacted] President, Daru Coin and Stamp, 6455 West Archer Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, 60638, was advised of the identity of the Special Agent [redacted] (SA) and that the purpose of the interview was to ascertain if he or his store was a victim of an armed robbery and/or burglary.

[redacted] stated that his store has been burglarized on several occasions and that he was a victim of an armed robbery at his store during the first week of December, 1977.

[redacted] then made reference to the night of the armed robbery. He recalled that he was working late that night and it was snowing very hard. While working behind the display counter he noticed what appeared to be a customer at the front door. [redacted] advised that he released the electronic lock on front door via a buzzer on the counter which allowed the individual entrance into the store. [redacted] advised that he then attended to his work on the counter top.

Moments later, [redacted] stated that as he glanced toward the showroom to be of assistance to his new customer, he was confronted by the customer who held a handgun. He further advised that the robber announced a holdup and then began to usher him into a back storeroom. [redacted] further advised that the robber then became very impatient and demanded to know if there was anyone else in the store. [redacted] stated that he ignored the robber's demand whereupon the robber then tied him to a chair with rope he (robber) carried on his person.

[redacted] added that the robber also carried a walkie-talkie and warned him not to call the police because he could hear if the police were coming. [redacted] also recalled that the robber was conversing with obvious confederates on the walkie-talkie using a number code.

Within fifteen minutes, [redacted] stated that he untied himself and activated the ADT alarm system located in the storeroom.

Enclosed for the Rockford RA is a photograph of Frank George Saladino, FBI number 397 697E.

For information of Rockford RA:

Investigation into the murders of the Chicago burglars responsible for the Levinson Jewelry Heist (12/77) and the burglary of the residence of Chicago LCN boss, Anthony Accardo (1/78) has produced a viable prosecutive case on the armed robbery activities of Ronald W. Jarrett and others.

Jarrett, a top Chicago hoodlum from Chicago's "Bridgeport" neighborhood, is also known to be a hitman for Chicago LCN underboss, Angelo La Pietra. Within the past ten years, Jarrett has operated a "crew" of armed robbers and burglars who have been responsible for numerous scores in the Chicago area.

Recently, two cooperating witness/subjects have furnished statements which implicate Jarrett and others in numerous armed robberies and burglaries.

Frank George Saladino, aka "Goomba," "Goombadie" FBI number 397 697E, Chicago Police Department IR number 354221, date of birth 12/9/45, place of birth Rockford, Illinois, Social Security Account number, 326-38-5530, was once a close criminal associate of Jarrett and participated in several armed robberies and burglaries in captioned investigation.

Since 4/78, Saladino has not been seen in the Chicago area specifically, in the Bridgeport neighborhood.

"Street" talk has Saladino hiding out in Italy, living in Rockford or is dead.

A third cooperative witness/subject in captioned investigation had learned from an individual close to Angelo La Pietra who advised (that individual) that "Goombadie sleeps with the fish." No other details were provided.

Sergeant [] Chicago Police Department Central Investigations Unit (CIU), who is assisting Bureau Agents in captioned matter, advised that the last known address for Saladino in the Rockford area was in care of his parents; George and Josephine Saladino, 1103 Kent in Rockford, Illinois.

LEAD:

ROCKFORD RA

AT ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS

Conduct logical investigation to determine whereabouts of Saladino. Case Agent, SA [] and writer desire to interview Saladino regarding captioned matter.

At the last resort, should an interview be necessary at residence of George and Josephine Saladino, they should be queried about the rumors of Saladino's death followed by a plea to solicit their cooperation in investigating the circumstances of his death. The rumor of his death should not be attributed directly to La Pietra.
